Joanne Parrish Knight

CARE & CONQUER CONFERENCE 2013

Thursday, November 14, 2013

1–8 p.m. | Registration: Noon | Registration: $30

Double Tree Hotel & Conference Center

16625 Swingley Ridge Road | Chesterfield, MO 63017

Register at: www.alz.org/stl or call 1.800.272.3900

This is the region's premier conference for caregivers and individuals with early-stage dementia. The conference features internationally renowned dementia experts and provides attendees with a full day of education, information and support.

Sponsors:

alzheimer's association®

1.800.272.3900 | www.alz.org/stl

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

MEDITERRANEAN FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Dr. Scarmeas will discuss his research of the whole diet approach and the association between a Mediterranean-type diet and Alzheimer's disease.

Nikolaos Scarmeas, M.D., M.Sc.
Associate Professor of Neurology, Columbia University

RESEARCH UPDATE: IMMUNOTHERAPY FOR ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

Dr. Holtzman will help us understand the history, current research and hopeful future of immunotherapy and Alzheimer's disease.

David M. Holtzman, M.D.
Professor & Chairman, Dept. of Neurology, Washington University in St. Louis

Keynote Speakers Sponsored By: