

Dr. Bill Thomas' Age of Disruption Tour

What if everything we think we know about aging is wrong?

Aging expert Dr. Bill Thomas and musical guest Nate Silas Richardson offer an entertaining and highly disruptive exploration of aging at the Kranzberg Arts Center in St Louis from 7:00 to 8:30 PM on Friday, October 9, 2015 as part of his national Age of Disruption Tour.

Dr. Thomas shows audience members how to turn the tables on “Life’s Most Dangerous Game” and approach aging with the skill and enthusiasm it requires. Mixing ancient wisdom, scientific breakthroughs, story telling and live music, Dr. Thomas challenges audience members to reject ageist stereotypes and embrace the moments of life that offer the greatest risk, reward and possibility.
