

On-line Health Care Leadership Institute: 2012

EFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP:

What is it?

How Can YOU Achieve it?

Through the Western IL AHEC • i-Net Healthcare Leadership Institute beginning, aspiring, and current healthcare leaders will come to understand the basic components of effective leadership and management skills, including communication, conflict management, delegation, and team building.

By participating in the Institute, you will be able to:

- Utilize effective communication strategies in difficult situations.
- Assess ethical and legal issues in leadership.
- Implement components of effective coaching, team building, prioritizing, change management, and delegation.
- Improve your daily performance!

i-Net is the continuing education branch of the Western IL AHEC, a non-profit organization whose mission is to enhance the professional knowledge of health care providers through educational opportunities.
