

Valerie A. Butler

Valerie Butler is a Health Program Representative II for the Office of Minority Health, Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services. She is the statewide Senior Advocate and Liaison for the six Regional Minority Health Alliances, Faith-based Initiatives, and the Paula J. Carter Center on Minority Health and Aging. Valerie has been with the Department for 23 years and with the Missouri Commission on Human Rights for almost six years.

Valerie is currently attending National American University's online program majoring in health care administration.

Valerie is an active member of Sugar Grove Missionary Baptist Church where she is the Church Secretary, Mission President, Choir Secretary, Vacation Bible School Teacher, and Praise Team member.

Valerie is a single mother of two daughters.