

Bureau of Special Health Care Needs
SHCN Service Coordination Model

Definition, Principles and Key Components

September 14, 2007

Service Coordination is a culturally competent, collaborative, proactive and comprehensive health care process designed to help each person achieve the best possible health and the greatest degree of independence. The primary mechanisms of Service Coordination are individualized assessment, planning, plan implementation, monitoring and transitioning.

Principles of Service Coordination

Key Components of Service Coordination

