

SERVICE COORDINATION PROCESS

Service coordination is a culturally competent, collaborative, proactive and comprehensive health care process designed to help each participant/family achieve the best possible health and greatest degree of independence.

The primary mechanisms of service coordination are:

- Individualized Assessment;
- Planning;
- Implementation;
- Monitoring; and
- Transitioning.

Refer to the Training Guide for specific processes, activities, and principles regarding the primary mechanisms of service coordination.