

Section of Epidemiology for Public Health Practice

Communicating public health science and data to create healthy communities

Epi Grand Rounds

Missouri Opioid Overdose & Bloodborne Infection Vulnerability Assessments

Learning Objectives:

- Discover the process used to complete the Missouri vulnerability assessment project.
- How the assessment can identify counties at high risk for opioid overdoses and bloodborne infections associated with nonsterile drug injection.
- The assessment methodology will be reviewed and preliminary findings shared.

Presenters: Becca Mickels & Julie Borders (Bureau of Reportable Disease Informatics)

No Registration Required!

For more information, go to <https://health.mo.gov/information/epigrandrounds/>

October 21, 2019 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Birch Conference Room, 930 Wildwood, Jefferson City, MO