

Brian K. Williams

Brian Williams has chaired the Northeast Alliance Advisory Coalition for over 8 years and has been with the Randolph County Caring Community Partnership for 10 years, currently serving as the Executive Director. Brian has designed and developed various programs and initiatives on family development, reentry, responsible fatherhood, and women's health and wellness. Brian is a trained facilitator for the Family Development Credentialing and Training program and Mental Health First Aid as well as a Master Trainer for the Fatherhood Development Curriculum. Brian serves on the board of directors for the Non-Profit Services Center and Shalom Christian Academy and Daycare. Brian is an Associate Minister with Faith Walk Ministries and serves as an advisory member of Future Well-being of Mankind.

Brian attended Baker University and the University of Missouri-Columbia and has an Associate's Degree in Applied Science from Moberly Area Community College.

He and his wife Ethel have four children.