

Monique Hyden

Monique Hyden, is a native of Springfield, MO. She received an Associate Degree from Ozarks Technical Community College, and her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Argosy University. Upon acceptance to Evangel University she will start her Masters in the Counseling Program in the Summer of 2014.

She currently works at the Springfield Greene-County Women, Infants and Children, (WIC) office, where she is a Breastfeeding Peer Counselor. She helps educate and support women as they move through pregnancy and adjusting with their new baby.

Monique is married and has one daughter. She is a member of the Springfield Seventh-Day Adventist Church.