SHOW ME A HELPING HAND
CHILDREN'S JUSTICE ACT
June 21-22 | Richardson ne Arts Center, Mitchell Auditorium | Lincoln University

Sexual abuse of males is often not discussed, misunderstood, and survivors are under-served. Participants will learn valuable tools to improve their investigations, prosecute cases, serve survivors, and prevent sexual abuse of all children.

Register Today at Event Brite, search: “Show Me a Helping Hand”

MIC HUNTER
Clinical Psychologist
Impact Of Gender Role Expectations On Juries, Judges, And Prosecutors

DAVID LISAK, PH.D.
Forensic Consultant
Changes in brain function affecting how we behave during and after a trauma.

Eventbrite
free to all who register, lodging and travel is the responsibility of the attendees.
MIC HUNTER
Clinical Psychologist

Dr. Mic Hunter currently holds Minnesota licenses as a Psychologist, and Marriage and Family Therapist, and previously as an Alcohol and Drug Counselor. His educational background includes B.S. in Psychology, a M.A. degree in Human Development, a M.S.Education, and a doctoral degree in clinical psychology.

He began his career in 1980 and has provided services in various mental health settings. His private practice is located in St. Paul, Minnesota. He is a founding member of Collaborations Training, which provides workshops to professional groups. He has taught at the graduate level in both the Human Development, and the Educational Administration Departments of St. Mary’s University of Minnesota.

DAVID LISAK, PH.D.
Forensic Researcher

Dr. David Lisak is a researcher and forensic consultant who for 27 years has studied the causes and consequences of interpersonal violence. His work has focused on the long term effects of sexual abuse in men, the relationship between child abuse and violence, and the motives and characteristics of rapists.

Dr. Lisak received his Ph.D. from Duke University and for 23 years served on the faculty of the University of Massachusetts Boston, where he taught and conducted supervised research. His research has been published in leading scientific journals, and he was the founding editor of the journal, Psychology of Men and Masculinity.

Lodging accommodations will be available on June 21, 2018, at the Capitol Plaza Hotel for 50 scholarship recipients. Participants must be a resident of Missouri for scholarship consideration. Participants must register by April 15, 2018, to be considered for a scholarship. The awarded participant will be notified electronically. A breakfast voucher will be provided to awardees for June 22, 2018. Lunch and dinner will be “on your own” for all attendees. Snacks and drinks will be available at the conference.